

2009 ARC Webinar #4
April 20, 2010 1:00- 3:00pm ET

Emergency Management and Response Planning

Upcoming Webinars:

May 18: Interpreting, Using and Communicating Climate Projection Information, Dominique Paquin
(rescheduled from March 23, 2010)

June 15: Building Design for Adaptation and Mitigation: Green Buildings and Beyond

- 2010 membership fee based on # of seats
- $500 per seat local government/health unit
- $1000 per seat provincial and federal departments or agencies
- $5000 for “sponsor” membership
- NGO, individual and others
  - please contact us

Resources for Webinar #4

Some Resources for today

Source: Environment Canada (2007)

HRM Climate SMART Community Action Guide to Climate Change and Emergency Preparedness (2006) Halifax Regional Municipality

Climate Resilient Cities: A primer on reducing vulnerabilities to disasters (2009). The World Bank

Climate change and local level disaster risk reduction planning: need, opportunities and challenges (2009) Prabhakar et al. Mitig Adapt Strateg Glob Change

2010 ARC Webinar #4

Emergency Management and Response Planning

Emergency Managers Confront Climate Change

Dr John Labadie, Strategic Advisor, Seattle Public Utilities Emergency Management Group

Mainstreaming Climate Change into Emergency Management in Ontario

Dr Aadu Pilt, Senior Scientist, Emergency Management Ontario

Taking Action on Climate Change

John Saunders, Provincial Director,
Disaster Management & International Response
Canadian Red Cross

Clean Air Partnership

May 18, 2010 1:00-3:00pm ET

Interpreting, Using and Communicating Climate Projection Information

Dominique Paquin, Ouranos

An introduction to climate modelling: from model anatomy to data applications

