

2009 ARC Webinar #7
October 20, 2009 13:00-15:00 ET

Adaptation Planning for Small Communities: Examples from BC and Canada's North

- 2010 renewal notice will be sent out Nov 1
- New 2010 members will be able to access November webinar without cost
- New membership fee based on seats
- $500 per seat local government/health unit
- $1000 per seat prov/fed dept/agencies
- $5000 for “sponsor” membership
- NGO, individual and others – please contact

Last webinar of 2009 series

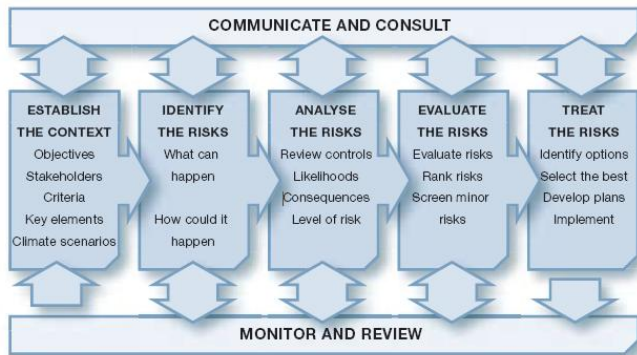

Nov 17: Emergency Response Planning

2010 series – will announce during Nov webinar

- topics informed by August member survey, and Sept webinar input
- welcome proposals for sponsored webinars

2009 ARC Webinar #7

Some Resources for today

Source: EHAGO (2006)

Climate Change Impacts & Risk Management: A Guide for Business and Government. Department of Environment and Heritage Australian Greenhouse Office (2006)

Climate Change and Aspen: An Assessment of Impacts and Potential Responses. AGCI Elements of Climate Change Report (2006)

2009 ARC Webinar #7

Adaptation Planning for Small Communities: Examples from BC and Canada's North

Climate Adaptation in Kimberley, BC: Learning, Sharing and Planning in a Small Mountain Town

Ingrid Liepa, Climate Change Adaptation Project Coordinator, City of Kimberley, BC

Community Adaptation Planning in the Yukon

Ryan Hennessey, Community Adaptation Project Manager, Northern Climate ExChange, YK

2009 ARC Webinar #8
October 20, 2009 13:00-15:00 ET

Emergency Management and Response Planning

Dr John Labadie, Strategic Advisor, Seattle Public Utilities
Emergency Management Group

Dr Aadu Pilt, Senior Scientist, Emergency Measures Ontario

